Program Outcomes for Postgraduate Courses

PO1 – Logical & Critical Thinking
Provide both fundamental and advanced knowledge to develop competent, creative, and imaginative professionals with problem-solving abilities.

PO2 – Effective Interpersonal Skills
Enhance communication skills, foster relationship-building, and maintain effective professional interactions over time.

PO3 – Management Skills
Apply management knowledge to identify, formulate, and solve operational, technical, and managerial problems in computer applications and management using modern tools, techniques, modeling, and simulation.

PO4 – Technological Orientation
Cultivate interest in the latest technological advancements relevant to the discipline.

PO5 – Ethics & Social Responsibility
Encourage independent and collaborative work while demonstrating professional ethics and responsibility in management roles.

PO6 – Zeal for Lifelong Learning
Recognize the need for continuous learning and engage with contemporary issues for professional growth.

PO7 – Speaking & Writing Skills
Communicate ideas effectively in both oral and written forms across academic and professional contexts.

PO8 – Time Management
Set goals, plan tasks, meet deadlines, manage risks, and deliver results efficiently.

PO9 – Understanding Cultural Diversity in Organizations
Promote teamwork, critical thinking, and communication skills essential for working in a diverse workforce and global environment.

PO10 – Career Development
Understand career development concepts, explore opportunities, and define professional goals.